ST. MARTIN OF TOURS

do guide and protect

"Always consider your school... as a temple
where dignity and purity prevail where truth and justice have the prominent places where religion is resplendent, that religion
which raises and ennobles the mind in God who is present everywhere..."
"Give the child a school which by mutual co-operation between the family and Church would work for the sound foundation of youth..."

Prologue

For the past two decades
the spotlight of fame has dwelt upon the humble, yet distinguished servant
of the servants of God.
The shining example of this outstanding personage has influenced and awed
those within and without his realm.
Throughout the Christian world the Vicar of Christ is hailed as the "Greatest Leader of our Times", a title that portrays him as a follower of the King of Kings seeking to increase the number of his Master's fold.
Now, as theme of the 1957 Victoria,
we, of St. Martin's humbly present Pope Pius XII:

The Greatest Leader

Pope of Peace

of Our Times

His Excellency
MOST REVEREND DANIEL J. FEENEY, D. D., LLD
Bishop of Portland

The spiritual guardian of the Church in Maine,
an Apostle of the Church,
Bishop Feeney represents the Pope
in the diocese of Portland.
To him we pay our token of respect and offer our heartfelt prayers and good wishes.

Dedication

The Victoria 1957 is dedicated to those parents who have complied with the laws of the Church and the wishes of Our Holy Father the Pope, in seeing that their children have received a Catholic education.
In appreciation for this priceless favor
we dedicate this book to them.
God bless them all!

The Papacy . . .

Truth and wisdom forever. Fountainhead of continuing inspiration and guidance for the faithful.

It is true to say that the present Pope is one of the most outstanding Pontiffs to have occupied the throne of Peter in modern times. To his vast learning and erudition is added a degree of sanctity that is striking and impresses even non-Catholics when they are received in audience by him. From the outset of his reign, he was called the Angelic Pastor, and such, both his writings and his speeches show him to be.

Pope Pius XII was born Eugenio Pacelli, in Rome, in 1876. Even in his childhood, he exhibited his love of the God who had created such a wondrous world. Frail and sickly, Eugenio was only eighteen when he entered the seminary. His health was not good; but within five years of intense study, Eugenio Pacelli, by the grace of God, became Father Pacelli. Little did he realize that forty years later, he would assume the pastorate of Peter's See, as Pope, on the anniversary of that great day.

This is the first chapter in the life of the "Greatest Leader of Our Times."

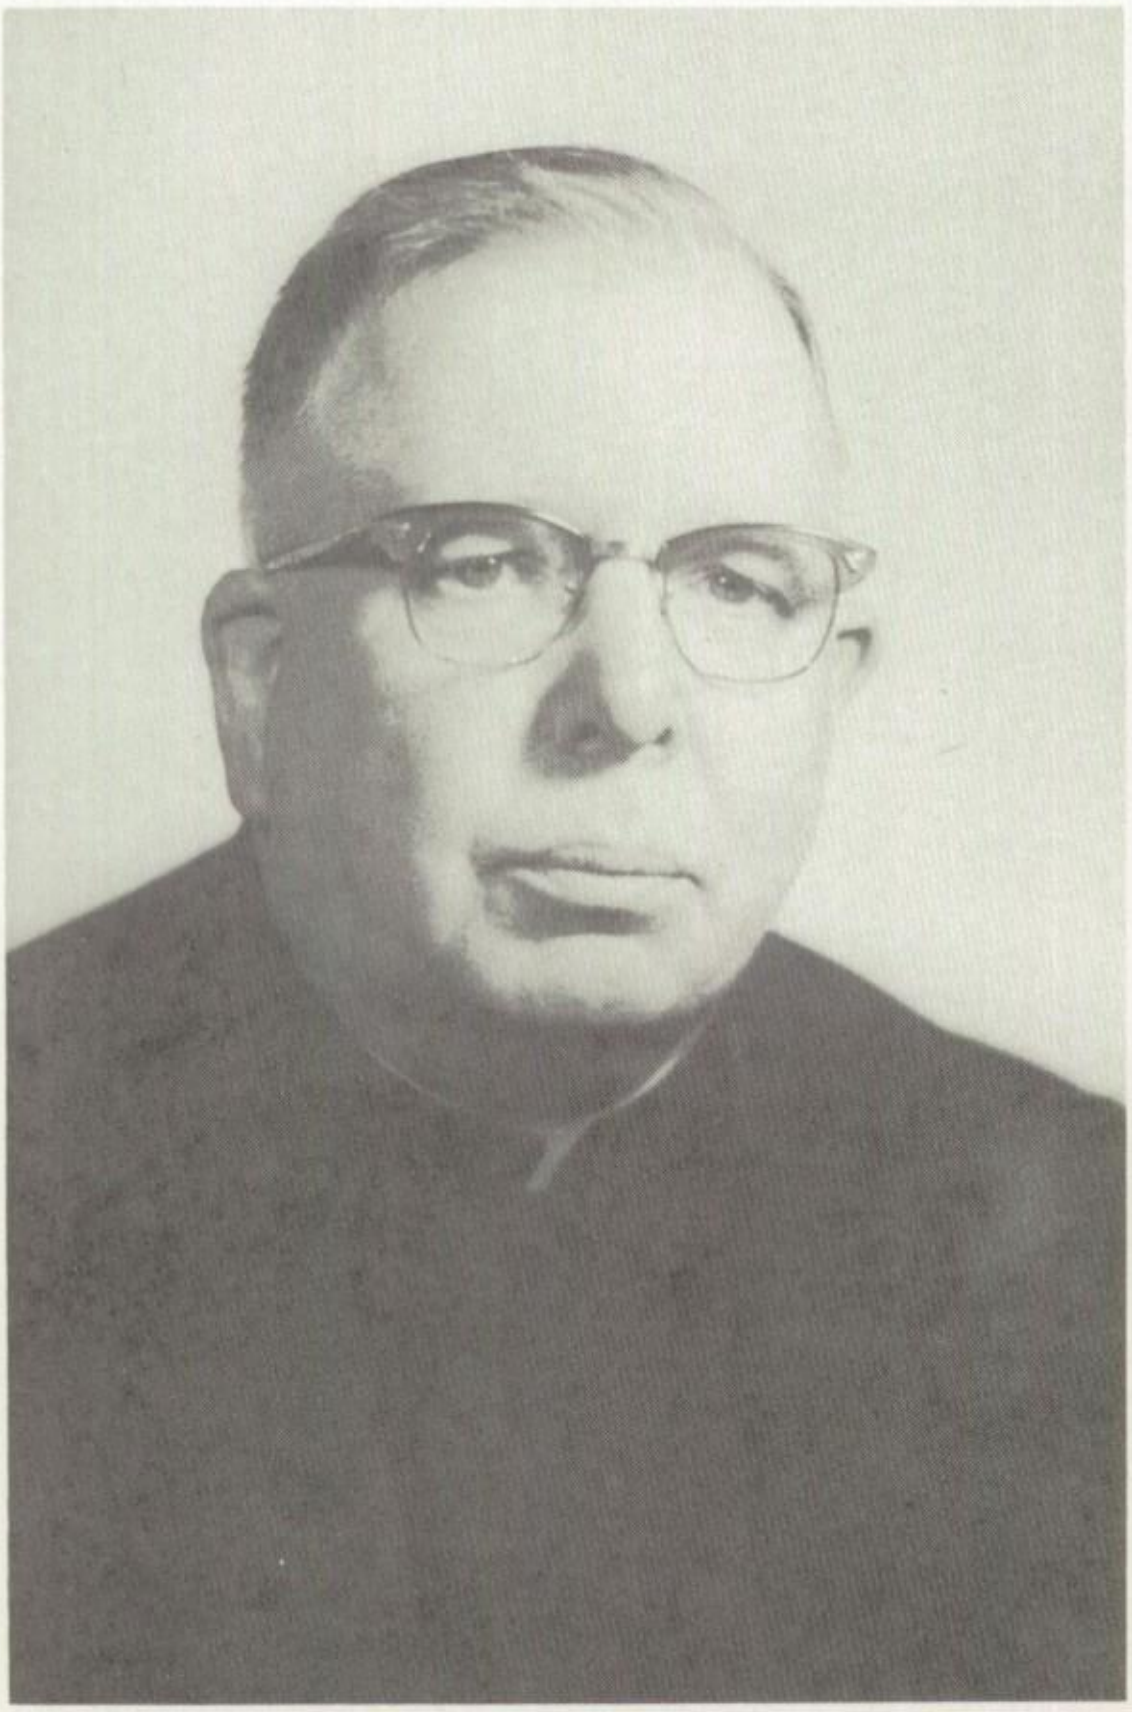
Faculty

THE POPE SPEAKS

"You have the future within your control because in your hands are fashioned those who shall dominate and mold future generations. These generations will succeed in forming and mastering a new society for the greatest good of the human family."

"This depends on your action, for no action patterned on that of the family home has a more lasting effect on the soul of young people than the school. Here is the importance of your task."

Pope Pius XII



REVEREND THOMAS B. HENDERSON
Pastor

In the person of our Pastor is found the aspirations of our Holy Father the Pope.
As a representative of His Holiness the words of Father Henderson herald those of the Vicar of Christ within our parish.

After humbly accepting the honor conferred on him, Cardinal Pacelli was appointed to be Secretary of the Vatican State. If this was a great honor, it was a greater responsibility, for now he had to deal with the rulers of every nation in the world. It was through Cardinal Pacelli that Italy was forced by public opinion to stop its persecution of the Church, and through the same medium, the Pope's warning about the Nazis was made known to the German people.

Often referred to by the Pope as the "Transatlantic Cardinal," Pacelli visited South America where he was representative of the Holy Father at a Eucharistic Congress. One year later he was chosen to represent the Vicar of Christ at the shrine of our Lady in Lourdes, France. It was here that he preached that "No one can stop the Church from doing her work."

The following year found Cardinal Pacelli on his way to the United States. Once more he exhibited his diplomatic ability and his love for his people. Shortly after his return from America, Cardinal Pacelli made a trip to the shrine of St. Therese, in France, with the sole purpose of praying for Pius XI who was nearing death. Two years later in 1939, the chair of St. Peter was vacated, and the Church mourned a strong character while preparing for an even stronger personage; that of Pope Pius XII.

Seniors

"With our mind's eye we see the innumerable ranks of the young people, as bud opening to the first light of the dawn. Marvelous and charming is this germination of youth from a generation which almost seemed doomed to extinction—a youth new and vibrant in its freshness and vigor, with eyes fixed on the future and also with an unrestrainable impulse directed to the highest ideals; a youth determined to improve on the past and obtain more solid conquests of greater value to the progress of man on earth."

Pope Pius XII

PATRICIA ARSENAULT, "Patsy"
Commercial

The shy girl with the charming disposition, who has a lot of school spirit is our Patsy. Tall, slender and frail, she plans on entering Husson College in the fall. We know that she will make a good secretary for someone.

DORIS BLANCHETTE, "Doris"
Commercial

Courteous and co-operative, Doris is well-liked by all at St. Martin's. A good dancer and school-spirted, D. never misses a social and is on hand to root for the home team. Doris does not say what she plans to do, but we are quite certain that she has a special someone waiting.

EDWARD BOUCHARD, "Eddie"
General

Eddie's blushing ability is a help to his good looks. Though quiet and rather timid, he, nevertheless, figures well in the best of company. He claims to be college bound, but we strongly suspect that he'll stop at Rox's instead.

ANN MARIE BOUTAUGH, "Ann"

General

Some people think the world is made for fun and frolic... Ann is our own personal package of mischief. She is a real live wire and has had her antics all through high school. Let us hope that success will light up her life as easily as her smile has lit up ours.

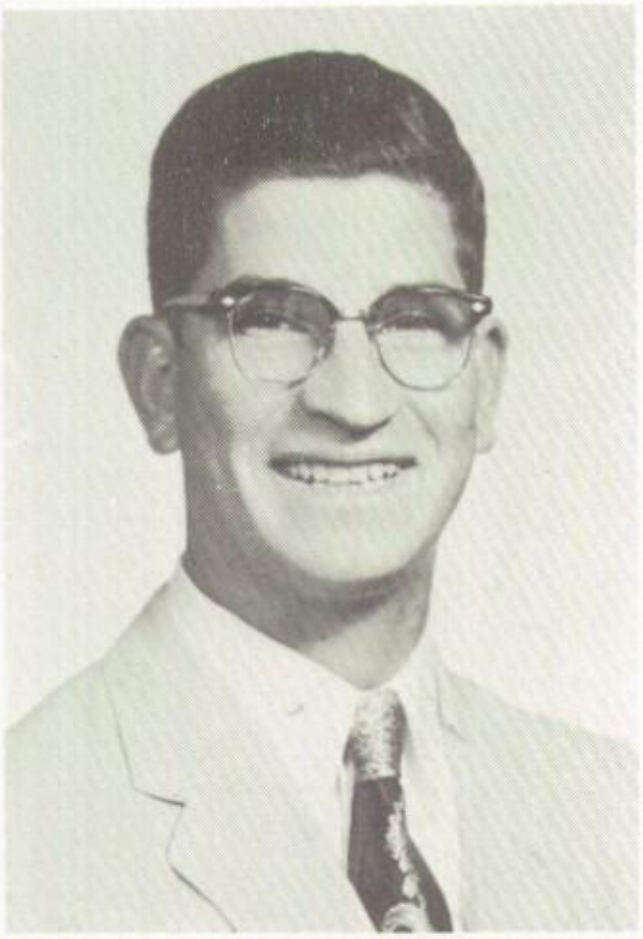
DOROTHEA BRUNETTE, "Dot"
College

Here comes our most studious senior. She has also done a swell job as prefect of the sodality and co-editor of the YB. She may look meek and mild, but she has quite a temper; we think it will come in handy, since she plans on becoming a school teacher.

Valedictorian

DONNA CARUSO, "Donna"
Commercial

If you see a Ford Beach Wagon rumbling down the road, head for the hills! Donna has the distinction of being the first Senior girl to get her license. She holds the title of being an A one typist. She is thinking of entering Husson College in the fall. We wonder why she wants to be a sec...???



MICHAEL COLOMBO, "Mike"
General

Mike can always see the funnier side of things, even when it isn't to be seen. Quietly mischievous, Mike is the man with the ad libs and his specialty is stirring up laughter in the back seats of the classrooms. We suggest that he try television as comedian after graduation.

MARY JEANNE CORBIN, "Mary Jane"
Commercial

Meet our Patron Queen! The top salesman of the class. It is surprising to all that M. J. has a temper like an Irishman even though her hair differs in color. In her Junior year, she added vitality to the cheerleaders squad. We think Mary J. will go a long way.

PATRICIA DAIGLE, "Pat"
Commercial

Rolling eyes, a roving heart, this brown-haired Miss is friendly to everyone. Her fine sense of humor adds enjoyment wherever she goes. Pat joined us only in the Junior year. She has an interest in the University of Maine. We wonder if she is Frank about it.

JOYCE FRIEL, "Joyce"
General

Tall, pleasant and smiling; that's no one but our Joyce. Always willing to co-operate, she is known as the most helpful member of the Senior Class. Although she has not yet revealed her ambitions, we are sure her path will lead her to Matrimony.

ELLEN GALVIN, "Ellen"
College

Ellen is the calm, collected type, the typical bookworm. Even though she dislikes to speak in public she nevertheless can hold her own in any discussion. As to conversation, "gabbing" is one of Ellen's natural gifts. In her career as a lawyer, it will certainly serve her well.

JOSEPH JAMIESON, "Joe"
General

The witty, barrel of fun Irishman of St. Martin's. Joe's favorite pastime is Clowning. Wherever you find Joe you're sure to have a laugh a minute. He spends his spare time with his best friend: his Chevy. With his innocent grin and winning way, Joe is all set for the future.

JACQUELINE KING, "Jackie"
General

Whenever there's fun, you'll find Jackie. Until recently her pet peeve was being late for school. Addicted to hill-billy music, Jackie also proved her acting ability in the Senior Class Play as the Red-Headed Stepchild. She might exchange her diamond ring for a commerical course.

CHARLES LANDRY, "Charlie"
College

Charlie is the happy go lucky type, who looks upon worry as a nuisance. He is a swell guy for those who like teasing. He is endowed with both looks and intelligence, a good combination for a future that promises to be successful.

JOHN LAPLANTE, "John"
General

Here comes the handsome lad of our crew. An outspoken fellow he is. Whenever you hear music he is bound to be right there. We think "Laplante" will be the first to break the sound barrier in his car. Enjoy your driving while you may, John.

THERESA MARTIN, "Teresa"
College

Theresa is a sociable, quiet girl well liked and always near at hand if anything is to be done. An honor student, her amibition is to become an R N. With her natural ability, she is sure to attain her goal. Good luck, Teresa.

ETHEL McDOUGALL, "Ethel"
General

The attractive green-eyed girl, who adds color to the senior Class is none other than Ethel. Her hobby is singing those good old western tunes, but this year she has spent her spare time learning home-making. We wonder if this has a special significance... we have it on the air as July???

Salutatorian

HARRY RUSH, "Buddy"
College

Buddy is the tall-man of the class. Ambitious, an honor student, and a 100% co-operative fellow. He is a born leader, always first in line for the title most school-spirted. He has plans to enter College, and we'll bet that he'll be an asset to any school.

Oh, to be young again. . . . .

Isn't it lovely?

Seniors 1957

Too swiftly the years have fled for us. Too soon has the time come for us to venture into an unexplored world with far-stretching horizons. We wonder what lies ahead. Now as we prepare to set out upon life's highway, we ponder on the many friends and memories we shall leave behind us. But, we have learned much since our first days here. We have learned what we are not likely to forget. Now with God as our guide, we are ready. Wish us good luck.....

At the age of forty-one, Monsignor Pacelli was named to fill an important office, that of Archbishop to Germany. His was no easy task, for Germany was wavering unsteadily in the service of the Church under the terrors of war. During these years of strife, His Holiness spent most of his time doing works of mercy, extending a helping hand to the suffering and needy. When the Great War ended, the conditions in Germany grew worse, and the influence of Archbishop Pacelli was especially felt. Revolt spread through certain sections of the country and in this trying time, he exercised his ability as a foreseeing diplomat and statesman.

At the formation of the German Republic, the Archbishop served as papal nuncio to Germany and was beloved and respected for his piety and learning. His every moment was spent in the interest of the Church, visiting as he did, nearly every part of that country.

In all, he spent twelve years in Germany and in that time wrought much for his Master. When the word arrived from the Pope that Archbishop Pacelli was to become a Prince of the Church, a Cardinal, the love he left behind caused one child to run to him pleading, "Please, come back!" The Archbishop could not hold back his tears, such was his devotion.

Classes

"A believing youth is one who has a lofty ideal and who is deeply convinced of the reality, the power and the value of this ideal."

"You possess this high ideal. You wish to work for the cause of God. You wish to work for the cause of Christ and His Church. The teachings and the grace of Jesus Christ, of which He has made the Church the custodian and the dispenser, the Catholic faith and Christian principles have always constituted the essential foundation for the happiness and greatness of your people. Help to maintain this indispensable foundation in your native land—this is the ideal which you pursue."

Juniors

With the passing of this year, the Juniors have increased both in their knowledge and know-how. As a class, they have been co-operative in accepting the responsibilities and duties which accompany the task of climbing to the goal at which they are aiming. We, the Seniors, wish them the very best of luck in the work which lies before them. May yours be a successful Senior year, a year of satisfying and complete fulfillment.....

As ever, the Sophomores are the fun-loving, jovial members of the student body. They have provided for us an element of fun that contributes to the wholesomeness of senior high school. However, when necessity demands, they can be serious. As yet, their tasks have been relatively light, but we feel sure that when the time comes, they will be ready, willing, and able to assume their duties to the fullest.

Many traditions were shattered on that day; for upon the third ballot, Cardinal Pacelli was the first Secretary of State to be elected Pope in over eight hundred years, and the first native born Roman in two hundred and eighteen years. Thus, on March 2, 1939, on his sixty-third birthday, the present Sovereign Pontiff was elected as successor to Pius XI, taking the name Pius XII.

The personal life of this prominent leader is one of austerity and sacrifice. In the midst of his functions as Father of Christendom, he preserves the humility that has always characterized him. His dealings with all are abundant in gentleness and kindness, so deep is his reverence, so profound his piety.

The Holy Father has no peer, yet he himself prefers to be a servant to those who serve God. He gives unstintingly of himself for the welfare of his people, and he is recognized as an eminent authority in decisions that affect the destiny of the entire world. From his home within the Vatican walls, Pope Pius XII, as God's Ambassador of Peace, has used every weapon of peace to combat assailants who are determined to undermine the Church. The eighteen year pontificate of this dedicated Father has indeed been a laborious and fruitful one.

Let us, by our prayers, help him in his work for the greater glory of God, and for the salvation and sanctification of the number of souls confided to his pastoral care.

Long may he reign!

"Physical education that strengthens the energies of the body; intellectual education that develops and enriches the resources of the mind; above all, moral and religious education that enlightens and guides the intellect, forms and strengthens the will, trains and sanctifies the character and thus gives to the image of God a resemblance to the divine prototype which renders it worthy of dwelling in the eternal missions."

Pope Pius XII

This "Holy Foolishness"

"COULD WE really call this our time, the time in which we live, otherwise than the Age of Our Lady? Don't you see in the whole world this lesson of love, of extraordinary zeal—I would like to say 'holy foolishness' towards the Mother of God, the Mediatrix of All Graces?"—PIUS XII.
